

Dear Herzberg family, i don't really know how hard it must, but i know it can't be easy. I couldn't even imagine losing a family member.
Thank you for your son/brother's service. It really means a lot that he was willing to give up his life for our country. I may not know how it feels to have lost a loved one, but my dad may be leaving for afghanistan anytime soon, and even that is killing me. I just want to say that Eric didn't die for nothing, and he is a hero.
