

Dear Herzberg Family,

I'm deeply sorry for your loss. Losing a family member is nowhere near just losing a son or sister, mom or dad. It is also losing a friend. I could not be filled with more sorrow for your loss. Your son died fighting for the country he loved. He was incredibly caring & strong. It is without a doubt, abundantly awesome that your family raised him to become the absolute great person he was. His fearlessness led him to live an exceptional life and create a story that would carry on for years to come. I hope that I can one day reach the courage, empathy, & love he had for the people and things around him. This memory he has created for everyone will stick with them for a long time. He not only will be remembered for his sacrifice, but by the events that built his life. A Marine fighting through war, a sport machine, an absolute caring friend, a loving son, brother, nephew, grandchild, but last and most importantly, a genuine good-hearted human being. It is much harder to find people like your son in our generation. We are all thank full for his commitment to our nation, and his dedication to our country & people. His legacy and story will carry on for the generations to come. Thank you so much for taking your time to read this letter &

Raising an incredible strong-hearted son,

Adrian Gallegos.
