

Dear Eric Herzberg,

As you dread everyday on the death of your son, yet you will have the memory of how brave, how strong, how much courage your son had to the United States. Once my science teacher Mr. Eric Wahlberg told me about this horrific tragedy I can't get it out of my mind. From the bottom of my heart, I am truly sorry.

Everyday on October 21st I personally give out my remarks to your son Eric William Herzberg Jr. This made me think differently about Memorial Day/weekend. Not just a day off school, but a day to remember the brave soldiers that risk their lives everyday so that I, Ryan Wasilewski can be free, and at safe in my home. Once again I am truly sorry for your loss, I can't say I know your pain because I don't. But one thing I do know is that your son Eric W. Herzberg died in complete honor for his country and for people.

Sincerely,

Ryan Wasilewski
