

To the family of Eric W. Herzberg,

Eric Herzberg was an incredible person. I wish I would have got the honor to meet him. He did a great thing for our country. A thing that takes so much bravery, not many people are willing to do it. I am very grateful for him. He passed doing a great thing. Our country needs more people like Eric. More people who are brave. More people are trying their hardest to keep our country a better place. More people like Eric W. Herzberg.

Sincerely,

Katrina Herder
