

Dear Herzberg Family,

Thank you for sharing the story of your son to the world and to our school. Eric is, and always will be, a hero. People like him make me very proud to say that I live in America. Your son didn't die for nothing, he will always be an inspiration to many. Eric was a true, honorable, soldier. Anyone could see that.

Please keep telling about the story of his life. Because, for a lot of people, that may be the greatest gift you can give them; a heroic story about a heroic soldier. So thank you again, Herzberg family. I encourage and root for you in everything that you do and you continue to do everyday.

Truly Inspired,
Jennie Peterson
