

Dear Mr. Herzberg,

I can't express how grateful I am for your son's sacrifice. For many, Memorial Day is a day off school or work, nothing more. But after hearing about how your son had the courage to do what he did, and died in the process, I feel different. Now, I will stop, and just be grateful on Memorial Day. All the fallen soldiers, including your son, deserve our respect. I am, again, very grateful.

Sincerely,

Serena M. Gale-Butts
